DATES TO FEBRUARY 27

Congressional

[illegible]

A resolution was passed [illegible] M. Phelps [illegible]

[illegible] offered a joint resolution [illegible] setting the grave concern with which the United States would regard any interference of the great powers favoring the perpetuation of Turkish supremacy in the islands of Greece.

Morrill thought it time to proceed to the business for which the Senate had met, and the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill to strengthen the public credit.

Doolittle spoke in opposition to the bill. Cole following on the same side.

Morton said he could consent only to that section of the pending bill declaring that all just obligations of the Government shall be paid in coin. He could vote on that alone. He would be inclined [illegible] but he would not vote for the rest of the bill because it would put a wrong construction on the law under which the five-twenties were issued. He regarded the bill as a mere bull movement intended to affect the present price of bonds for speculative purposes.

Sherman defended the Finance Committee from the extraordinary attack of the Senator, and said ever since the Committee had failed to see the merit of his finance bill that Senator had found [illegible] with all their work.

Mr. Fessenden's amendment to the first section was rejected and the bill passed—30 to 16. Adjourned.

In the House the Louisiana contested election cases were taken up, and after considerable discussion a resolution was adopted that Mr. Jones is not entitled to a seat from the second district of Louisiana.

In the case of Messrs. Menard and Hunt, Mr. Garfield asked consent that Menard, who is a negro holding a certificate, be sworn as the sitting member pending the disposition of the case. Messrs. Wood and Kerr objected. The rules were suspended and each contestant was allowed fifteen minutes to address the House in his own behalf.

Mr. Menard made his appearance in about the centre of the Republican part of the House. Mr. Woodward suggested that Menard speak from the Clerk's desk [laughter].

The Speaker said Menard had no place on the floor and could speak from any place he pleased.

Mr. Menard addressed the House and referring to the fact that Hunt had not taken the testimony required by law, said if Hunt did not know the law of Congress he was a poor subject to be sent to Congress. [Laughter.] He proceeded in a good humored style and attracted attention and apparent sympathy. After speaking fifteen minutes he obtained leave to print the remainder of his remarks in the Globe.

Mr. Hunt declined to avail himself of the permission to address the House.

Mr. Maynard desired to offer a motion giving Mr. Menard a seat pending the discussion.

Mr. Upson declined to yield the floor and argued that neither of the claimants were entitled to a seat.

Messrs. Schenck, Garfield and Paine showed that Mr. Menard by holding a certificate of election from the Governor had the same prima facie right to a seat like every other representative.

Mr. Cary spoke in favor of Mr. Hunt's right to a seat.

Mr. Kerr also argued in favor of Hunt and much desultory debate followed. Finally the previous question was ordered and Mr. Upson divided his hour among various members.

The vote was first taken on the resolution of the majority of the Committee on Elections declaring Hunt elected. This resolution was rejected. A vote was taken next on Loan's amendment admitting Menard to a seat, which was rejected by a vote of 57 to 130.

Mr. Dawes insisted that the whole subject be tabled, which was agreed to without a division. He then offered a resolution for the payment of $2,500 each to Menard and Jones.

Mr. Kerr moved to include the other contestant Hunt.

Before taking the vote Mr. Chandler made a personal explanation reading from the Globe to prove that the Speaker in questions of veracity between members had decided one way in respect to Republican members and another way in respect to Democrats.

The Speaker replied to Mr. Chandler's assertions [illegible] official rules.

The question was then taken on Mr. Kerr's amendment which was agreed to and the resolution adopted.

The House took a recess.

Evening session—Mr. Hubbard from the Committee on Public Expenditures made a report on the Alaska matter.

Messrs. Broomall, Coburn and Faber offered a declaration of their own, disapproving the conduct of Messrs. Walker and Stanton for keeping the fact of their being retained by the Russian Minister from the knowledge of those they were securing the influence of.

A [illegible] passed authorizing the [illegible] Pacific Railroad Eastern Division to change its name to the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

The House went into committee of the whole on the Senate amendment to the Indian Appropriation bill.

Charge to the U. S. Grand Jury in the U. S. District Court

[illegible]

It is not enough that you dispose of the cases laid before you by the District Attorney or some of your own number. Your power and duty both authorize and require of you to make special enquiry for yourselves, as to the violations of law throughout the District. Except by the consent of twelve of your members no person can be put upon trial in this court on a criminal charge. You are a shield to protect the weak and innocent from false and unjust charges and a power able to [illegible] be they ever so great or popular.

In respect to the manner and extent of your [illegible] good sense will be your best guide. [illegible] to act upon [illegible] evidence or what satisfies you that the legal evidence exists. The party accused or concerning whom the enquiry is made has no right to be heard before you, and you should not allow him to be [illegible] or to be examined as a witness in his own behalf. The District Attorney will be ready to assist you in your enquiries and give you information on matters of law. You may also at any time come into court and propound such enquiries concerning the business before you as you see proper.

If you have any reason to believe that any officers of the Government possess information proper for your action you should summon them before you and examine them thoroughly. Officers connected with the assessment and collection of internal revenue may with special propriety be thus examined.

Upon the three subjects of Internal Revenue, Counterfeiting and the Postoffice, allow me to give in charge the following from the charge delivered by Chief Justice Chase, to the United States Grand Jury for West Virginia in August last.

The first of these is the faithful execution of the internal revenue laws. The war in which the nation has been recently engaged for the preservation of the national Union and government endangered by rebellion made the contracting of a large debt inevitable. This debt is the price of our national existence and binds irrevocably the good faith of the people. Its inviolable obligation has been recognized by a solemn act of the nation in adopting the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which declares that the validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall be questioned. There are differences of opinion as to the mode of payment required by the contracts of the American people made through their government, but nobody questions openly, if anybody questions at all, that the debt contracted must be paid, and paid in perfect good faith. The law of the amendment that the validity of the national debt shall not be questioned was already written upon the hearts of the people before they made it part of the Constitution. To provide for the reduction and final payment of this debt and for the annual expenses of the government taxes are necessarily imposed. In other words the equal proportion to be contributed by each citizen is ascertained by law. He who withholds his just proportion deprives the rest of the people of exactly the amount withheld. His fraud operates as theft.

The sum total necessary to meet the obligations of the nation must be raised. Fraud upon the revenue does not reduce that sum; it merely shifts the burdens evaded by the fraudulent upon others who pay their full proportion besides. All honest men, therefore, have a common cause against the dishonest.

You gentlemen represent the honest men, and it is your duty to see that no defrauder of the revenue who can be brought to justice escapes merited punishment. The higher in office and the higher in social position the delinquent may be the more unremitting and searching should be your diligence in inquiry and presentment.

Some of the observations just made might be properly enough repeated upon the next topic to which I must invite your attention. I refer to counterfeiting. It is to be regretted that the currency of the country now consists wholly or almost wholly of paper, but it is not the less important on that account that the people should be protected as far as possible against counterfeiting. Whatever the currency of the country may be payments must be made in it and exchanges effected through it. It is practically the common measure of values. Whoever imposes a counterfeit dollar on the public robs successively all who take it in payment. Counterfeiting is continuous robbery, and it falls chiefly on those who are the least able to bear the loss. Occasionally men are defrauded by counterfeit money in large transactions, but the principal sufferers are laboring men, whom it is the peculiar duty of government to protect from wrong.

You will be vigilant, gentlemen, in your investigations concerning this class of crimes.

What remains to be said concerns offences against the postoffice laws. Under our benignant system of government the means of cheap and frequent intercourse between the [illegible] The mails carry messages of affection, science and business, but they are also the agents of immense pecuniary transactions, by remittances of bills of exchange and small government money orders. You see at once how important it is that the laws which regulate this vast interchange should be faithfully executed, and we are confident that nothing more is needed [illegible] your best endeavors to detect and bring to justice all those whose crimes and offences deprive the people of the great benefits which those laws [illegible]

Before closing I feel bound to call your attention [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] that such practices have been [illegible] I repeat that [illegible] the finding parties [illegible] depend more than anything else upon the skill and finesse of the Jury by whom he may choose to be aided to escape the cost on the outside for him.

We often boast of our high civilization and not unfrequently deplore the ignorance and barbarism of our ancestors. But as a means of determining the guilt or innocence of the accused, the ancient wager of battle was quite as reliable as such a jury trial, and much less demoralizing to the community at large.

A distinguished French aeronaut, M. Chevalier, announces his intention to undertake an aerial voyage to Europe, starting from New York next April or May. M. Chevalier has been more than ordinarily successful in past attempts. He once made the journey from Paris to the Russian frontier, a distance of over 700 miles, in less than five hours. Upon another occasion he crossed St. George's Channel from Dublin, and has accomplished without injury several ascensions in France and England. The trip across the Atlantic suggested itself to him within the last year, and like most men for whom danger has a sort of fascination his resolution to try this most hazardous feat gathered strength from delay. The air ship in which the experiment is to be attempted is confidingly styled L'Esperance. Its height is 95 feet, its diameter 150 feet, and it requires 120,000 cubic feet of gas to inflate it. Attached to the ship is an enclosed car capable of carrying about fifty persons, with provisions for a ten days' voyage.

The Wind.—How little we appreciate the effect of wind on locomotion, how much it helps a traveler when it flows with him, and how much it hinders him when against him. We often see a thoughtless driver whipping his horse when going against a strong wind because the animal falls behind his usual rate of speed, not considering that the effect of that head wind was equal to the addition of a hundred or more pounds to his load. On an English railway lately a train was able to make but three miles in thirty-one minutes, with a full head of steam!

An inveterate tobacco chewer was in the habit of declaring about once a month that he would never chew another piece, but broke his pledge as often as he made it. On one occasion, shortly after he had broken off for good, he was seen taking another chew. "Why," said his friend, "you told me you had given up that habit, but I see you are at it again." "Yes," he replied, "I have gone to chewing and left off lying."

Of all young women mentioned in the Bible Ruth seems to have treated her sweetheart the worst. She pulled his ears and trod on his corn.

Better.

Better a little labor
Than overrest,
Better a pleasant neighbor
Than tedious guest,
Better the funeral shroud
With hope behind it,
Than light within the cloud
That silver lined it.

Better aspire to-day
Than dream to-morrow,
Climb though the upward way
Be vined with sorrow;
Better press toward the goal
God destined for us,
Though shadows walk the whole
Long way before us.

Better a sea of light
When morn hath crowned it,
Than all the stars of night—
Its spells around it,
Better a life sublime
Unshrined in story,
Than one gew-gawed by Time
And bruit with glory.

Better the mind to see
And soul to fashion,
Than senses that but be
Art-slaves to passion.
Better one touch of God
At Nature's heart,
Than all that vain men plod
In realms of art.

Better a life that flows
God's holies under,
Than one of flaunting shows
And mortal wonder,
As lowlier it be here,
Where the heart acheth,
So loftier 't will appear
When the morn breaketh.

STOW FOUNDATION PAVEMENT

San Francisco, January 18, 1869.

Hon. Frank McCoppin, Mayor of San Francisco—Dear Sir: You have now been connected with our City Government as Supervisor and Mayor for the past nine years, during which time you must have given a great deal of attention to Street Paving, and I now ask it as a special favor to me, that you give briefly, in writing, the result of your convictions relative to the several styles of street paving now in use in this city. By so doing you will much oblige

Your obedient servant,
H. F. WILLIAMS,
President Stow Foundation Pavement Co.

San Francisco, Jan. 20th 1869.

Henry F. Williams, Esq., President of the S. F. P. Co.—Dear Sir: Your communication of yesterday, requesting me to give in writing my opinion relative to the several kinds of street pavement now in use in this city, is before me, and in reply I would say, that at the time I became a municipal officer of this city, in 1860, and for many years thereafter cobble-stone was the only kind of pavement used by the city in its corporate, and by individuals in their individual capacity. About five years ago the Nicolson pavement was introduced here by Mr. J. J. Robbins, assignee of the owner of the patent, and was received with much favor by our citizens. Very many portions of our streets are now paved with the Nicolson Pavement, so called—still later—that is to say, about two years ago, the "Stow Foundation Pavement" was introduced here by the inventor, and many of our public streets have since been paved with that pavement.

A sufficient length of time has, I think, elapsed, to enable any person who has given the subject any attention, to form an intelligent opinion as to the merits of the respective wooden pavements—of course, I leave the cobble-stones out of view entirely—and I have come to the conclusion, that, in many respects, such as adaptability to our wants and in durability, the Stow is the superior pavement. But, were the two pavements equal in every other respect, the facility with which the Stow can be taken up and relaid, whenever it becomes necessary to displace it for the purpose of laying down gas and water pipes, should, in my judgment, entitle it to preference and public favor.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
FRANK McCOPPIN,
Mayor of the City of San Francisco.

We, the undersigned, have carefully read the above letter from his Honor, Frank McCoppin to H. F. Williams, Esq., upon the subject of street paving, and we fully indorse every word it contains:

NOTES.

Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connections with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, from neglecting to take the mail from or into a postoffice; for suffering it to be injured, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running vehicles on the route. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for disobeying the post office laws, or the instructions of the Department. He may alter the schedule of departures and arrivals, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at a pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount of service dispensed with. Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals, State of Oregon," and sent by mail.

For forms of proposal, &c., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices.

ALEX. W. RANDALL,
j11dlaw4w Postmaster General.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON for the county of Multnomah.—Henry L. Pittock, Plaintiff, vs. James P. O. Lownsdale, Administrator, James P. O. Lownsdale, Guardian of Millard O. Lownsdale, Millard O. Lownsdale, Ruth A. Lownsdale, John A. Blanchard her Guardian, Ida Squires, Wm. E. Cooper her Guardian, Emma S. Lamb and John R. Lamb her husband, Mary E. Cooper and Wm. E. Cooper her husband, James P. O. Lownsdale and Hannah and Hiram Smith, Defendants.—Summons in equity to quiet title to Block 215, City of Portland, Oregon.—To Ida Squires, one of the Defendants above named: Whereas the plaintiff above named has filed in the Court above named a complaint, of which you are hereby notified, and claims title to that parcel of land known as Block No. 215 in the City of Portland, Oregon, to which, it is said, you and other defendants set up some claim adverse to plaintiff, and prays that said adverse claim be determined and that you be excluded from any lien, interest or estate in said land; and whereas a summons was duly issued and you were required to answer said complaint in ten days if served in said county or within twenty days if served out of said county, and you were not served within said State, but it was shown that you were a non resident of the State of Oregon, and an order of publication was made by said Court, to the end that you might be notified of the pendency of this suit. Now, therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon, you, the said Ida Squires, are hereby notified of the pendency of the above entitled suit and are required to appear in the Court above entitled at the City of Portland, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held on the second (2d) Monday of June, 1869, and answer said complaint, or in default thereof, the said complaint will be taken as confessed and the plaintiff will take judgment against you, and a decree according to the prayer of said complaint as above set out, as well as for general relief.

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing, AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department *it will be, as it has been, the fore*most in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The Weekly Oregonian has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the Oregonian in every direction.

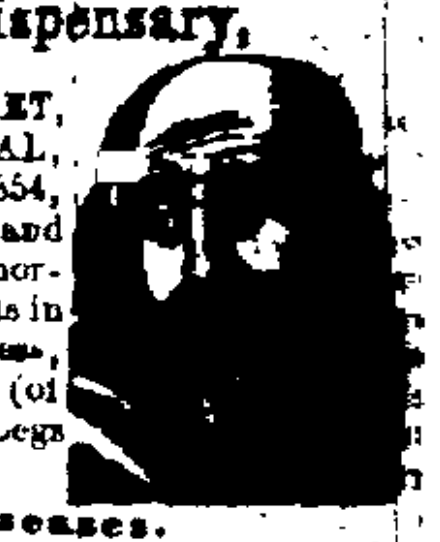
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, ... ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of ... or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let ... guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies so that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who ... publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the name of eminent physicians from European and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, un... about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vi..., blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treatment. The disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain Directions for use, by ... Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter, through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

To Tobacco Dealers.—The following circular of instructions has been issued by the Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Oregon, for the benefit of whom it may concern. There are many dealers who are ignorant as to the manner of stamping and particularly as to the denominations of stamps required for the various packages, and for their benefit, we give the circular publication:

"It is required by law and regulations that all smoking tobacco, fine cut chewing tobacco and snuff shall be stamped with stamps especially provided for that purpose before the same is offered for sale.

Tobacco stamps are prepared of the following denominations: half ounce, one, two, four, eight and sixteen ounces, and from one to one hundred pounds, and classed sixteen and thirty-two cents.

Fine cut chewing tobacco and smoking tobacco, prepared without stems, and snuff, must be stamped at the rate of thirty-two cents per pound; and smoking tobacco, prepared with stems, at the rate of sixteen cents, which stamps must be canceled by writing or printing the name of the proprietor and date of affixing the same upon each stamp.

Those stamps may be purchased at the office of the Collector. All orders for stamps must state distinctly the number, denomination and class of stamps required, thus:

500	half ounce stamps, class	32		$ 5 00
500	one " " "	32		10 00
500	eight " " "	16		8 00

All orders in this form, accompanied by money, will be promptly filled.

Other kinds of tobacco than those above named, can be sold without stamps until the 1st of July, 1869."

Dead.—A telegram received yesterday by Rev. J. Dillon, from Mr. J. K. Gill, of Salem, announces the death at 2 o'clock P. M., yesterday, of Rev. Father David Leslie, at his home in Salem. Father Leslie was among the earliest settlers of Oregon, and his death might have been appropriately termed the Patriarch of the Methodist Episcopal clergy. His removal from earth creates a void in both the church and the community, which no one can fill. In the early years of Oregon he was intimately connected with the various efforts to reduce the country to something like order and to establish the regular administration of law and justice; and to his labors may be credited much of all the good that has followed to the State. In the archives of the early Missionary Society, his name stands, perhaps, pre-eminent as an [illegible] and efficient laborer. He was among the few who originated the seminary at Salem, which, in later years became the Wallamet University—an institution which is not only a proud monument to its founders, but an honor and ornament to the State. He has always, we believe, been a member of its board of management, and nearly always one of its principal officers. The history of Oregon could not be properly written, with his part in its public affairs left out. As a minister, he enjoyed in a remarkable degree, the confidence and love of both clergy and people; and as a citizen, he possessed the most universal respect of all [illegible]. There will be very general mourning throughout the country as the tidings go abroad that Father Leslie, the Pioneer, the Missionary, the Pastor, the Teacher and the Friend, is no more.

U. S. District Court—Deady, Judge.—The following were the proceedings in the United States District Court, yesterday:

In the matter of J. M. G. Kallich in bankruptcy; set for trial on petition for discharge on the 29th inst.

Grand Jury empanneled and sworn, and Gen. Joel Palmer appointed foreman. The following are the Grand Jurors sworn: William White, J. R. Bean, Charles White, Jacob Hampton, William Toney, C. G. K[illegible].—There is just now a sort of general hubbub on the [illegible] of stamps, sardine boxes, spice, informers, [illegible] etc., etc., occasioned by the numerous suits [illegible] in the U. S. District Court against parties for [illegible] goods. The revenue hook seems to have been [illegible] waters, recently, and the [illegible] and collectively, are making a [illegible] of the law is pleaded in [illegible] by most of the [illegible] and the plea is, no [illegible] entered. There is [illegible] in the [illegible] the bliss of ignorance; but the doubt if any [illegible] can be brought to see it in that light, [illegible] cases. The difficulties [illegible] ignorance of the law [illegible]. In these cases, ignorance is a [illegible] folly to the wise. [illegible] the old [illegible].

Velocipedes.—A gent[illegible] of this city recently addressed a letter to Messrs. Palmer, Knox & Co., velocipede [illegible] of San Francisco, to ascertain the cost of the vehicles. He last evening received a reply [illegible] some information which will doubtless be interesting to not less than fifteen [illegible] people of this State who have velocipede on the brain. The manufacturers say they make velocipedes with thirty-two inch driving wheel, for $60; of thirty-four and thirty-six inch driving wheel, for $65; of thirty-eight inch wheel for $70. The thirty-four and thirty-six inch wheels are most used, being as we infer, most nearly suited to the average length of legs. They weigh, complete, about forty-five pounds. They say they have on hand now nearly a hundred advance orders for velocipedes, and that orders are crowding in rapidly. The Pacific world seems to be agog on the velocipede question.

A Runaway and Narrow Escape.—The Commercial says: "Yesterday, as Pete Williams, with his wife and child, were driving out to the White House in a two-horse [illegible], the horses became frightened and started off up the road at a fearful rate. From the point of start [illegible] the White House, was about one mile and a half, [illegible] Mr. W. exerted himself to his utmost to [illegible] he could not restrain them. Just as they [illegible] the end of the macadamized road, the [illegible] too far to the right, ran the carriage [illegible] mound of soft earth, which overturned it [illegible] the occupants out. Mrs. Williams' head [illegible] with a prostrate post, cutting her head [illegible]. The child met with no further accident [illegible] partly buried alive in the yielding [illegible] some slight bruises. No damage done to horses or carriage."

A Mistake.—The Commercial of last evening says in [illegible] to the case of the State vs. Fox: "A demurrer to the [illegible] was sustained, on the ground that a State Court had not jurisdiction. Mr. Fox and his sure [illegible] were discharged." This is not correct. The only proceedings had were the filing of the motion to dismiss the indictment and resubmit to the grand jury, and the [illegible] for a change of venue. The former motion was [illegible] because the resubmission of the case would be a tacit decision as to the jurisdiction of the case by the court, which the defense denies or will deny at the proper stage of the suit. The whole case remains as at first, except that the motion for a change of venue is pending.

Circuit Court—Upton, Judge.—Proceedings of Monday, 1st:

State of Oregon vs. Jack Williams; jury empanneled; [illegible] and submitted.

State of Oregon vs. John Williams; indicted for larceny; jury empanneled; argued and submitted.

Fire judgments by default, against the steamboat W. not entered.

State of Oregon vs. D. P. Fox; motion of Prosecuting Attorney to dismiss indictment and resubmit to the grand jury, overruled; affidavit for change of venue to the [illegible] district, filed by the defendant.

[illegible] Ball.—The annual meeting of the Pioneer Base Ball Club was held last evening, at Buchtel's Gallery. The [illegible] officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, Charles W. Parrish; Vice President, M. K. Lauden; Secretary and Treasurer, Joseph Wiley. Without electing the Captains of Nines, the club adjourned till next Saturday night at half-past seven o'clock, when, we are requested to say, it is desired to have all [illegible] present.

Beware of the Penalties.—The Internal Revenue laws require that all income statements shall be returned to the [illegible] on or before the 10th of March of each year, for the preceding year, and affix a penalty of fifty per cent. of the income returnable, for failure to make return. The laws make it the duty of assessors to proceed against [illegible] parties, and it will, therefore, be well for everybody to be careful about "dangerful delays."

U. S. Circuit Court—Deady, Judge.—The following are the proceedings of yesterday:

J. W. Whalley, Esq., admitted to the bar.

John Catlin, assignee vs. Wm. Carrier, order to place cause on docket; motion to strike out part of answer allowed, and defendant had leave to amend his answer. Fechheimer for plaintiff, Stout for defendant.

Adjourned until Monday next.

Mt. Hood.—It is said by the early risers that this venerable mount is putting on glories in especially gorgeous style, just at sunrise, every morning. If anybody hankers after a particularly magnificent scene of the romantic sort, enough to get up before sunrise, they should try their optics and ejaculatory adjectives on Mt. Hood, before the present spell of clear weather closes.

High Toned Ball.—We hear that the Demi-monde were out to the White House Sunday evening, on a gay old bender. Quite a number of the b'hoys of this city were also out, and mixed in the "mazys," but we hear no names mentioned. Judging from reports, the affair had much tone, though not much can be said of its quality.

Real Estate Sale.—Mr. A. B. Richardson will sell at auction at ten o'clock this morning, a couple of very desirable lots, with dwelling house, situated on the corner of Stark and Fifth streets—a good chance for investment in a homestead. At the same time and place he will also sell the furniture of the occupant—Mr. Jacob Marks.

The Columbia River.—Captain T. J. Stump, of the steamer Owyhee, came down yesterday from up the Columbia. He reports the water extremely low yet. There seems to be no immediate prospect of the resumption of navigation.

Laying the Dust.—It is not usual for our streets to be very dusty on the 1st of March, but they were so, this time, sure. The sprinkler man was out yesterday with his machine, much to the gratification of everybody.

Ladies' Goods.—We call the special attention of our merchants to the advertisement under the head of "New to-Day," of Messrs. Rosenbaum & Freidman, of San Francisco, dealers in all lines of ladies' goods.

Practice.—The Pioneer Base Ball Club will meet for the first practice of the season, at four o'clock this afternoon, on the old grounds on the east side of the river. A good turn out is desired.

Ricket[illegible].—A [illegible] office has been opened in the [illegible] street, opposite [illegible] charge.

The Next Steamer.—The steamer Oriflamme did not sail on Saturday, as many supposed. Our dispatches so [illegible] as long yesterday.

The R[illegible].—[illegible] the roads [illegible] save the [illegible].

Combing Wool

From a circular published by Justice Bateman & Co., of Philadelphia, dated February 1st, we take the following extracts in relation to the demand for combing wools and the necessity for wool growers to turn their attention to this class of wools as being much more profitable than the finer qualities:

The demand for these wools is increasing so rapidly that it will be impossible for the American farmers to supply enough of them for years to come. Three-quarter blood wools are now grown in excess of the wants of the country, and soon the Pacific States and Texas will raise enormous quantities of the fine wools, and probably cause a further reduction in the price. If our farmers in the present wool growing sections wish to raise wool at a profit, they can do so quite easily and with but slight expense in making the change, i.e. them have one of the Canadian farmers' young Leicestershire rams at a cost of $5 to $10 each, and cross them with their medium and coarse wool ewes, and they will produce sheep valuable for mutton and producing the wool which is most wanted and sure to command a high price. These sheep will be hardy, but they should be sheltered from the storms in winter and fed on turnips and other roots rather than corn, that the wool staple may be strong and lustrous. Our quotations for combing wools at present, are 50 to 53c for unwashed, and 65c for washed; fine fleece wool 53 to 60c; three quarter blood and medium, 50 to 53c and coarse fleece 50 to 52c.

There are hints here which those engaged in sheep husbandry in Oregon would do well to take notice of. Experience has shown that excellent combing wools may be produced here, but their production is now almost neglected. The California dealers have remarked this change in Oregon wools.

Diplomatic Dickering.—In the beginning of the Spanish revolution, Mrs. Perry, wife of the Secretary of Legation, was guilty of the indiscretion of occupying a prominent position at a woman's rights meeting. The meeting was called to discuss the question of women suffrage. Mrs. Perry was President of the meeting, and was accused of inaugurating the movement, which however, resulted in nothing. The course the lady pursued was commented on at the time. Recently John P. Hale, United States Minister to Spain, wrote a lengthy letter to a member of Congress, in which he made some important revelations relative to Mr. Perry and Secretary Seward. It appears from this letter that Mrs. Perry is a Spanish woman. Between the schemes of Mr. and Mrs. Perry, it seems that Mr. Hale is kept very busy. If even a small part of the statements made by Mr. Hale are true, the conduct of Mr. Perry, who is said to be under the influence of his wife, has been most scandalous. He has made use of his position to operate largely in stocks, and in such a manner as to bring discredit not only upon himself, but upon the American Government. Mr. Hale presents an array of facts and figures sufficient to condemn his subordinate. In addition to his stock speculations, he availed himself of Mr. Hale's temporary absence to usurp his place as Minister. On the other hand, Mr. Perry charges Mr. Hale with gross neglect of his duties and laziness. These charges elicited a letter from Seward to our Minister requesting him to resign. Mr. Hale intimates that the Secretary of State is interested in the Spanish "jobs" planned by Perry; and thus the matter stands at present.

Who Will Have Influence With Grant?—The New York correspondent of the Chicago Journal writes as follows:

"The greedy office-seekers here are on the alert to discover who has influence with Grant. General Wallen, in command at Fort Columbus, has undoubtedly, more influence with the President-elect than any other human being, not even excepting his wife, or General Badeau. General Wallen, who figured but little in the rebellion, befriended Grant when he was a young Lieutenant, in a way that he can never forget. I venture to say that there is no reasonable request that General Wallen could make of Grant that would not be acceded to. Judging by the frequency with which his name is mentioned by the office-seekers, General Badeau must be incessantly bored by requests to use his influence with his Chief. Whenever a squad of politicians meet to canvass the prospects of obtaining this or that office, the question is invariably asked, "does any one know Badeau?" "who will see Badeau?" etc., etc. Badeau is the son of a retail grocer up town. He early developed a taste for artistic matters, used to be a reporter on the New York Press, and a few years ago wrote a very readable volume of New York sketches. His life of Grant is unquestionably the ablest military volume ever brought forth by an American, and the second volume is anxiously looked for by those who have perused the first. The Appletons have been somewhat disappointed in the sale of the work thus far, but it is a volume for all time, and will without doubt, insure them heavy profits in the future.

The velocipede mania has become general. In Chicago they have a "rink" where the celebrities exercise themselves at the expense of four falls to a circle. In New York, Boston and Philadelphia the velocipedes have made their appearance on the streets, and no longer attract unusual attention. There are no less than forty new patents granted and under way, and the new and fashionable mode of locomotion bids fair in some quarters to revolutionize the livery business. It will be strange indeed if American people permit themselves to be led captive by a wooden horse, and stranger still if the wooded horse distances the high-stepping thoroughbreds.

Mr. Weed writes from South Carolina as follows: We find in the climate of Aiken all the advantages we hoped for. In this respect, there was nothing of exaggeration in the many favorable representations we had heard and read. In climate, the January of Aiken resembles the October of New York—it is dry and clear. We walk morning, afternoon and evening, without overcoats. Ladies enjoy croquet in costumes suitable for May on the North river. Violets are in full bloom. Now, as heretofore, there are many Northern citizens passing the winter here.

The New York Herald's commissioners and chemists find that the drugs sold by the wholesale dealers in that city are adulterated worse, if possible, than any articles yet examined. The "opium" is mixed with sticks, flour, earth and sand; the rhubarb frightfully reduced, and some specimens disguised beyond recognition.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can be seen by anybody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

ESDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1869.

Historical Learning.

Herald has always been a wonderful for the skill and accuracy of its historiculrations. It now tells us that,—

> 'as with the greatest difficulty that the Union reserved during the administration of Wash, on account of the disturbing element of sme Massachusetts introducing the assump ill, and which would have broken up the at the time had it not been for the exer of Thomas Jefferson to effect a compromise en the parties, who procured the consent of outhern States to assume the National debt h was owned principally in Massachusetts) e consideration of having the capital located ashington City?

e history which most people have read s that the difficulty which arose, at the alluded to grew out of the proposition sume State debts. The National debt already provided for. If the public debt owned principally in Massachusetts, it because that State had furnished more for the armies of the Revolution than furnished by all the States south of Dele. Most of the State debts had been ted by the war; that of Virginia had been tly reduced by extensive sales of Keny lands. Massachusetts and South Car still owed upwards of five million doleach, and those States, opposed in almost ything else, agreed in warmly supporting assumption of the State debts. Connectiand New York favored the same policy. s it appears that Massachusetts was not e in introducing in this "disturbing eleit." Nor was it Jefferson who effected compromise by which, as the Herald tells the Union was preserved. This proposi was made by Robert Morris of New York, other strong advocates of assumption. his Ana Jefferson explains what part he in the matter. He says he was "duped it by the Secretary of the Treasury, milton), and made a tool for forwarding schemes, not then sufficiently underd." So that, what the Herald claims for as a meritorious act, that person logizes for, and says was one of Hamil's schemes. After all, Jefferson says he "no part (in the compromise) but an [illegible]ry one." Finally the matter was led, and it was agreed that if the State ts should be [illegible]med the seat of Government should be permanently fixed on the Po[illegible]. But it passed by a very close vote y two of the Virginia members of the use voting for it. The act passed the Sen, fourteen to twelve, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, and South rolina being unanimous for it; New Hampre, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland [illegible], and Rhode Island, Virginia, North rol[illegible] and Georgia unanimous against it. that, in the first place, the Southern [illegible] (with the exception of South [illegible], was with Massachusetts the matter from the beginning) not consent to assume the debts, and Jefson is not the man who effected the com[illegible]. Madison opposed the whole policy [illegible]ption. By the arrangement State hts were assumed by the Government, as [illegible] Massachusetts and South Carolina, ,000,000 [illegible]; Virginia, $3,500,000; North rolina, $2,400,000; Pennsylvania, $2,200,-0; Connecticut, $1,600,000; New York, $1,-0,000; New Je[illegible] and Maryland, $800,000 ch; New Hampshire and Georgia, $300,000 ch, and Rhode Island and Delaware, $200,-0 [illegible]. No [illegible] to be paid except [illegible] supplies furnished during the r. The principle of the assumption was st and right. From this statement of facts will be seen how much credit is due Thomas ffe[illegible] for having "[illegible] the Union" on [illegible]ion. It would be impossible to crowd to the same number of lines a greater numr of errors and blunders than the Herald s made in this case; and this is about a ir sample of the historical disquisitions hich we receive from Democratic sources.

But Its of [illegible] Suffrage.

N[illegible] of the evil [illegible]lts which it was preoted would follow the general enfranchisepnt of the negroes at the South have ocrred, and it is now two years since the [illegible]tion franchise was given them. On the ntrary, the most excellent results have been tained by the adoption of that measure. ie peace and security which the country enys are largely due to the thorough and radilly right policy which Congress adopted. ie enfranchisement of the blacks was a easure of necessity. Without it, the nationcredit, honor and safety would have been dangered. Rebels would have been in ower in all the Southern States, and thus en able to prevent the adoption of all meases to secure the public tranquility. The ourteenth Amendment to the Constitution, amendment absolutely necessary for the ace of the country, would have been deated. The freedmen would have been kept a state of degradation worse than slavery elf. They would have been fully controlled the great landowners, and the old system large plantations and sparse white populan would have been continued. White labor ould have been repelled, because negro lar, being virtually owned by the planters, ould have retained the old badge of degradan. In fact, the South would have remained its old undeveloped condition, the poor hites and negroes alike subjected through norance and a want of opportunities, to the mination of the few who had for years ruled at portion of the country. The enfranchisent of the blacks has changed all this. It s infused a spirit of enterprise and activ into the whole people of that section. has set everybody at work. The negro s a means of maintaining his rights, and clines to be the unrewarded subject of an just taskmaster. He has been stimulated enfranchisement to make an effort in his n behalf, and the heretofore lazy whites e obliged to keep at even pace with him. e Tocqueville says "it is impossible that e lower orders should take a part in public isiness without extending the circle of their eas and quitting the ordinary routine of eir mental acquirements." Both emancition and enfranchisement were objected to the ground that the negro would become le and worthless. The result has been far herwise. There has never been a class of ople who have shown more zeal for pross in the right direction Time is proving e wisdom of the means adopted by the Reblican party for the restoration of the untry.

Four colored militiamen were court marled and shot for rape in Crittenden county, kansas, not long since Their punishment all the rules of justice, was richly deserved. t if all the white men who have outraged ack women at the South were shot for the me, what a ghastly pile of victims there ould be! In Mississippi, Alabama and other uth[illegible]n States, there were as many mulates in 1860 as Democratic voters.

Small Notes

A party of hunters in Montana had an encounter with a full grown American lion recently. The animal received seventeen bullets before he succumbed. He measured eight feet from nose to tip of tail and was nearly four feet high.

Says the Commercial: "Only a few months before Grant's nomination by the Republicans, he was spoken of as the choice of those who wished to have a man in the Presidential chair who should not be bound by any party ties And when he was nominated by the Chicago Convention, either by advice or his own accord, he declined to make his principles known." Only listen to this Democratic optimist! What a disappointment is before him!

Commissioners appointed by the Governor of Indiana have ascertained that the claims for damages by the Morgan raid in that State already presented, amount to $497,390, and the Commissioners have approved of enough of these to cover $413,599 The Governor recommends that the State pay these claims. The State will then look to the General Government to reimburse the amount If paid, Kansas, Pennsylvania and Maryland will follow suit with similar claims.

It is stated by Col. Barton, aide-de-camp and private secretary to Gov Clayton, of Arkansas, that during the three months preceding the calling out of the militia there were received at the Governor's headquarters authentic accounts of over two hundred different murders perpetrated with impunity in that State, and very many of the most fiendish outrages; but during the forty days which have passed since martial law was declared but one single murder and not a single outrage has been heard of in the State

Mr. William Swinton is the correspondent of the New York Times who has professed to make so many revelations in the matter of the Banks-Grant-Vicksburg correspondence. The N. Y. Sun says there is reason to suppose that Mr. Swinton's action is animated to some extent by the quality of personal resentment. That gentleman once had the misfortune to displease General Grant, as did General Burnside, as correspondent, so much so, that Grant on the 5th of July, 1864, issued an order directing "Mr. Wm. Swinton, a duly registered correspondent for the New York Times," to leave the lines "for forwarding for publication incorrect statements." The order added that he should be sent under guard to headquarters if again found within the lines.

One of the best speeches at the late Burns Festival in New York was that of William Cullen Bryant, who said: "I wonder how the poets would look, if they could all be brought together, with their 'eyes in a fine frenzy rolling,' and some of their number I fear sadly out at the elbows. What would the denizens of Wall Street think of them, if they were marched in procession through that quarter of the city? If an army of stock-jobbers could be mustered, and another of Bedlamites, and a third of poets, to which of the other two would the troop of poets seem, by their demeanor, to be most nearly related? To that question, I fear I could not give an impartial answer."

Why They Did Not Vote.

The Caucasian, a Democratic paper published in California, in an article rebuking other journals of its party for not coming squarely up to the Democratic view of the right of secession, says:

> For the information of the editors of the papers named above, we would say that previous to the election there were Democrats in every precinct in this county (Butte) who declared they would not vote, because the nominees had sustained the war against the South, and because in the conduct of the canvass the supremacy of the Federal Government over the States was acknowledged by the Democratic speakers, and the result of the election showed that they did not vote. At one precinct alone seventeen Democrats refused to vote for the reasons given above. Last week we were in Oroville, during the session of the District Court, and made one of a party of nine, in the back room of a lawyer's office, and one of the party remarked that he had voted for the last time unless the Democracy would organize on the basis of the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions. Another gentleman, a native of Ohio, holding up his hands said: "Gentlemen, these hands have not been guilty of dropping a ballot in a box since I voted for Breckinridge, and they will never drop another unless the Democracy go back to their principles which they shamefully abandoned at Chicago." "That's my fix," "and mine," responded seven out of the nine, four of whom did not vote at the late election. The names of these gentlemen can be given if necessary.
> We ask the editors of the papers enumerated above to reflect upon these facts and answer if they are not alarming. If the defection is so great in this county, is it not reasonable to suppose that it is equally great in others? And if we do not go back to the beaten path which we trod from the days of Jefferson down to 1860, we may prepare for the worst—for defeat here at home, if not an utter disruption of the party. Whether it be right or whether it be wrong, such is the feeling abroad among veteran Democrats, and our brethren of the Democratic press ought to know that 'the machine' cannot be run well without their co operation.

That is pretty direct testimony and proves the secession proclivities of the Democratic party. Without these men it can never succeed, and if it shapes its policy so as to capture them its defeat is certain. In either case, it has a hard fate before it.

Our Rivers.

It is gratifying to know that in the general eagerness for railroads, river navigation is not to be overlooked. Though we are to have two railroads traversing Wallamet valley, the advantages which will follow the opening of the falls at Oregon City will be very great. There is a steadily increasing disposition to disparage nature, to ignore her claims, and to forget the advantages she holds out to us To tunnel through mountains, link great valleys bridge great water courses, and bring the oceans within a few days' journey of each other, are achievements that no wise man or one who has the welfare or the future glory of the nation at heart, would wish to lessen Every mile of new road laid, every new prairie crossed, is simply additional evidence of our progress in developing the resources of the country. The locomotive as it passes from valley to valley, beneath the mountains, crossing rivers, skirting lakes, bisecting plains, may be compared to the shuttle of the weaver's hand, adding with every movement back and forth, a fresh woof to the web of progress Let the shuttle fly free of obstruction We do not desire to see a single web broken We object to neither bridges, tunnels nor trestles. At the same time let us not neglect the facilities for trade provided by nature What is more common at this day than to find river and railways in the same valley? Yet railways can never stop river navigation Expenditures of money to improve our rivers are as wise investments as railroad enterprises, and when the Falls of the Wallamet and the Cascades of the Columbia no longer impede navigation, great results will be gained

A Eugene paper says: A Deputy U S Marshal has been in this place during the week summoning the parties that have been indicted for violation of the revenue laws. We understand that he had a warrant, which he served at this place, for the arrest of a man charged with having opened and read a letter directed to his wife.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO MARCH 1.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, Feb 28. The Tribune's Washington special says it is reported that McCulloch and Browning had tendered their resignations to take effect on the 1st of March

Members of the House Foreign Committee express the belief that the present condition of affairs in Cuba and San Domingo will surely lead to annexation within the first four months of Grant's administration.

Conference Committee, in the consular and diplomatic bill, agreed to report against the consolidation of the South American Commissions

The President has decided on the recommendation of Attorney General Evarts, to release Braine, the last of the Confederate prisoners, immediately

WASHINGTON, Feb 28 Clarke, representative from Kansas, telegraphed yesterday that both branches of the Legislature of that State had ratified the constitutional amendment passed by Congress the Senate unanimously, the House 67 to 7.

NEW YORK, March 1 Jack Stratman and Gov Purdy are both candidates for the American Commissionership to settle the claims against Mexico.

Stewart is also a candidate for Postmaster and Marshalship

Mr Whiting gives up his aspiration for Ministership and expects to be continued in the Indian Department.

McGarrahan's bill is dead for want of time to consider it.

Congress has appropriated $50,000 to deepen the harbor of the Midway Islands, despite Butler.

The total appropriations for the San Francisco Mint are $247,500. Axtell and Higby warmly eulogizing Swain, endeavored vainly to get an increased appropriation. The House refused $125,000 additional for the San Francisco Mint building. There are serious complaints against Treasurer Faleon, and his removal is urged.

WASHINGTON, March 1 —The Senate Committee on Public Lands has ordered the Chairman to report back nearly all the railroad schemes and ask a discharge from them. Among them are the Fort Scott and Santa Fe road and the Denver, El Paso and the Oregon branches of the Pacific railroad.

The Wells, Fargo Investigating Committee brought in their report to the House unchanged.

Last night it was generally agreed that Wilson of Iowa will be Secretary of the Interior.

It is understood that all the Cabinet except Schofield and Evarts have tendered their resignations to the President and that they will be accepted immediately. The respective departments will be left in charge of the officials next in rank.

NEW YORK, March 1 —The Herald's special says Gen. Van Allen has arrived in Washington and had a conversation with Grant on Cuban affairs. Van Allen is the bearer of important documents from the revolutionists, and is charged by them with the task of laying the true state of affairs before Congress and the President elect. Grant expressed himself strongly in favor of recognizing Cuban independence. He says Spain did us serious wrong in the war, by protecting and harboring privateers and blockade runners.

An account is given of the visit of Senator Stewart to General Grant. Stewart said he came to know how Grant stood on the constitutional amendment giving universal suffrage North and South.

Grant replied that he understood the amendment and hoped the States would ratify it. He believed the Republican party was bound to see this conclusion realized. He desired all the gentlemen present to understand that this was not for private information alone, but for the whole country.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 —C. D. Robinson, of the firm of Wood & Robinson, brokers, is reported by his partner, to have absconded with $20,000 of Government and $48,000 of various other stocks, and of certified checks, $30,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The schooner Wide Awake, from Honduras, arrived to-day. She reports that she was overhauled Feb. 19th, off Sand Key by a Spanish man of war, which sent an officer on board to examine her papers. The officer said he was watching for a small steamer from some southern port, said to be carrying supplies to the Cuban rebels.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, Feb. 27 —Advices of the 20th, from San Domingo, say negotiations for a loan from British capitalists had failed. The security was unsatisfactory.

The question of annexation to the United States was exciting considerable interest.

General Faribon was instructed to confer with the United States Government on the policy of creating a free neutral port as a center of commerce on San Domingo.

HAVANA, Feb. 27.—More troops are going to the interior.

Intelligence from Neuvitias to Thursday last, states that on the night of the 21st, the doors of all residences in the city, occupied by Cubans, were marked with a black cross, on placards, with the words, "the time for clemency is ended Vigilance." Great excitement was caused, and the strenuous efforts of prominent Spaniards alone, prevented an outbreak.

A foraging expedition from the beseiged garrison of Puerto Principe, burned some days since, the Edaluvas estate. On their return, they were attacked by the Cubans and compelled to retreat to Puerto Principe, with the loss of forty killed and a large number wounded.

Four thousand refugees from the country are reported at Gibra. There was a great dearth of provisions and an epidemic was feared.

Advices from Santiago de Cuba, received Sunday, say the cholera is decreasing there. Several steamers left that port to day crowded with Cuban refugees for the United States.

HAVANA, Feb. 28.—It is reported that the insurgents in the vicinity of Santiago, have again cut the aqeduct

Official information states that Luca is strongly reinforced and is pushing his way to the interior from Guanaja.

The insurgents are stationed in force at Magarabunba, and it was expected the troops would soon attack them.

Puella had arrived at Cienfuegos with reinforcements. The troops there are to be divided into three detachments, one under Puella to go to Santa Espeuitee, one under Settona to go to Villa Clara, the other under Paerz to go to Sierra Morena and Mucaqua.

One engagement had taken place between the Spanish troops and insurgents at Blurra de Stormeig. Many were killed on both sides. The result was unknown Reports from Cuban sources say a fight occurred between the rebels under Quesada and the army of Luca, on the road from Guanaja, and the government troops were routed.

*Rumors are in circulation to-day, that an ex*pedition from the United States has landed near Remedeos and Guerdoillas.

Some Cubans declare the belief that as soon as Grant is inaugurated he will recognize the belligerent rights of the revolutionary government.

Hall, United States Consul at Matanzas, will assume the functions of Consul at Havana.

The emigration of Cubans is undiminished Every steamer that leaves port is crowded.

More troops are needed from Spain to occupy the whole Island and disperse the insurgents The troops are now unable to do more than hold their own Meantime the people in the country suffer all kinds of destitution Their complaints are heart rending, and thousands are seeking refuge in the cities.

HAVANA, March 1 —The steamer sailed to day for Cadiz. It took many Spaniards as passengers and some State prisoners

It is reported that several insurgents in the interior who surrendered in the hope of securing the benefit of the amnesty, have been taken from prison and shot

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 28 —The Grand Jury submitted their report yesterday For prudential reasons the Court would not allow the report, nor the names of parties indicted to be published until a further day Rumor has it, however, that four of the members of the old outside land committee, of the Board of Supervisors, with two or three other parties, have been indicted in connection with the charges made in the Board a few nights since by Supervisor Cavalan

On Monday the Courier de San Francisco will be printed on a new printing press just received from Paris. It will be driven by gas and electricity, a motive power that is said to have proved successful in France.

Yesterday the County Court, Probate and 4th District Courts, removed their papers and records to their old quarters in the City Hall, in the rooms formerly occupied

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1 The Constitution to-day sailed for Panama with 173 passengers and $314,000 treasure

The new time table advertised this morning calls for only three steamers per month to sail hence for Panama, on the tenth, seventeenth and thirtieth of each month having thirty days and on the tenth, eighteenth and thirtieth of each month having thirty one days

Kirwin's saloon, Lechenstein's cigar store, Abrams' shoe store and a coffee stand on Kearny were burned last night loss about $3,000. The place swarmed with thieves, who carried off considerable property.

The report of the Grand Jury is published. They animadvert in scathing terms upon the course pursued by the outside land commission, saying that the evidence brought before them was shameful and scandalous, but from its nature would probably be thrown out in a criminal court. They presented Supervisor Cavalier upon the charge of attempting to bribe Supervisor Hunan in his official capacity, also, John H Smith and R P Clement on charges arising out of the same investigation

A half interest in the Allison ranch mine at Grass Valley has been purchased by Erwin Davis of this city, and work is to be resumed immediately

A riot took place on Stewart street yesterday morning in which fifteen men were engaged Weapons were used freely and several men were severely hurt A similar row occurred on Sansome street during the afternoon

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, March 1 — Efforts are being made to establish another water company in the city, the water to be supplied from Elk lake, five miles distant. The company will be under the sole control of the Government

The steamer Sir James Douglas arrived from Nanaimo on Saturday. She reports that there are 10,000 tons of coal ready for shipment at that port.

SEATTLE, March 1.—The body of James Broad, who was drowned some weeks since, has been found on the beach about three miles from Port Madison.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

MADRID, Feb. 28 —The insurrection attempted at Barcelona last week was quickly suppressed. Forty persons were implicated. The city is tranquil.

LONDON, Feb 28.—A report is current that the Spanish Minister to England has received instructions from Madrid to proceed to Washington and settle any difficulties which may arise in consequence of the Cuban insurrection.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—Raymond, temporary President of the Senate, died yesterday, aged 62.

STATE ITEMS.

A large cougar was killed in Siuslaw valley recently, measuring nine feet and two inches from the end of the nose to the tip of the tail.

Lieut. John F. Small, who committed suicide at San Francisco last week, was a son of Mr. Harvey Small, of Lane county.

From the Eugene Journal: The people of Long Tom have shown themselves willing to put up with every inconvenience for the sake of encouraging the navigation of their beautiful stream. The middle "bents" of the bridge on the river road, about four miles below Monroe, have been removed to allow the steamer to pass up and down more readily. It may be that the interest they feel in having their spirits landed at their doors is stronger than their desire for bridges or the extra facilities for shipping their produce.

The Cost of the War.

Some months ago, in order to correct the many crude and inaccurate statements which had been put forth in regard to the cost of the late war for the Union, United States Treasurer Spinner was at great pains to compile from the books of the Treasury an accurate official statement of war expenses and the amount paid toward their liquidation. He therefore authorized the following official statement. It shows the amount over and above the present public debt, raised by taxpayers, for the purposes of the army and navy, interest on the public debt incurred by the rebellion, and for pensions for the eight years preceding July 1st, 1868:

Paid to army in excess of ordinary times	$3,110,406,231 66
Paid to navy in excess of ordinary times	314,663,981 18
Paid army pensions in excess of ordinary times	67,442,185 95
Paid navy pensions in excess of ordinary times	14,165,318 33
Paid loss of horses in military service in 1865, '66, '67	1,781,548 46
Paid interest on war debt from 1863 to 1868, inclusive	587,475,189 43
Paid for property destroyed during the war	5,330,000 00
Amount refunded to States for war advances	10,330,000 00
Total cost of the war	$4,121,594,455 04
Total public debt March 4, 1861, when Republicans came into power	68,482,686 19
Total of public debt before the war, and for army, navy, interest, etc., since	$4,190,077,141 23
Public debt August 1, 1868, less Pacific Railroad bonds and cash in the Treasury	2,491,324,480 67
Total amount paid in eight years	$1,630,269,974 37

This statement shows that in eight years, preceding the 1st July last, we actually paid, for expenses of army and navy, pensions, bounties and interest in excess of ordinary times, $1,630,269,974 37, that is beyond and besides the ordinary expenses of government

This is an immense achievement, and if the same prodigious effort was continued, would pay off the debt in twelve years more. But the Republican Congress has wisely judged it better to abate the heavy taxes of the war period and to reduce the burdens so nobly borne by the people then to an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the public debt and the ordinary expenses of the Government, with a small surplus for a sinking fund

For the prodigious expenditure caused by the rebellion, the Democratic party is responsible. The whole cost of the war, over four thousand millions of dollars, is directly chargeable to that party For the great effort of national self-sacrifice which in eight years paid off from the proceeds of taxation over two-fifths of the immense war debt, the credit belongs wholly to the Republican party, of whose vigorous and provident policy it was the fruit.

A Salt Lake dispatch to a San Francisco paper says that Brigham Young has been attacked by apoplexy It adds The Prophet was stricken down in his private office, and it was some time before assistance could be rendered him, from the fact that the serious mishap was not known to the clerks in the outer room He was immediately conveyed to his residence, and is now lying on a couch surrounded by his family He has rallied once since the attack and it is thought that he will survive this being the first of the usual series of three attacks, the last one proving fatal.

A foreign letter says A friend of mine has a servant who is rather a favorable example of her class She is quick witted and intelligent She lately informed my friend (who is an American) that she had lived in service with another American My friend—"Pray what part of America did he come from?" Servant hesitating "Oh! I don't know from America " My friend "What was he, do you know?" Servant—"His father was Governor of America, and his son was Governor of the United States "

The State of Ohio has 5,800 miles of railroad track The gross earnings of the roads the past year were $47,118,722, and the total expenses $32,920,034, leaving the net earnings for the year $14,193,688

Mr Weed writes a letter from Charleston, S C, in which he says "Young men of cultivation and refinement, who once supposed that the Divine injunction relating to the 'sweat of the brow,' was applicable only to the colored race, are now eagerly seeking employment, however laborious, to maintain themselves, while their mothers and sisters, with equal alacrity, avail themselves of every occupation suitable to their sex and character. The intelligent and civil conductor of a street car, in which we were riding, is a grandson of the late Episcopal Bishop Bowen, whose family lo fore the war was wealthy "

OPPOSITION LINE OF STEAMERS —A private letter from San Francisco says that a strong and well regulated Steamship company was formed in that city for the purpose of running a line of steamers regularly between San Francisco and Portland The steamers are known to be suitable for the Oregon trade, and are noted for good speed and splendid passenger accommodation The people of Oregon will have an opportunity of showing whether they are willing to patronize good and staunch steamers, at a reasonable price for freight and passage, as it will depend on the patronage these steamers will receive whether they will remain in our waters or not.

While you think of opposition, remember that KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, have the finest stock of Clothing and Dry Goods, and sell at very low prices.
